Through no fault of his own, Howard "Fade" Pickens is now the proud owner of Bay St. Louis' -- and maybe the world's -- first drive-through barbershop. A pick-up truck slammed into the front wall of Pickens' Fade 1 Barbershop in the Marketown Shopping Center at a little before 5 p.m. Thursday. It didn't go all the way through, but it made quite an impact just the same. "I had my back to the front door, cutting a customer's hair, when all of a sudden it sounded like the whole world was caving in," Pickens said Thursday. "I'm just glad nobody was hurt." Here's where it gets a little weird -- no one was driving the truck. Steven Delcuze -- with his brother Frank in

In the event of a medical emergency or accident, an air ambulance is sometimes all that stands between the victim and certain death.

Unfortunately, that service can be extremely expensive, costing upwards of $50,000 for a single life-saving trip.

That's why AirMedCare Network now offers a membership program for its services that costs just $85 per year.

"If you or anyone in your household is airlifted from the scene of an accident or you need to be transported from one hospital facility to another facility, you are not responsible for the bill if you have this membership," AMCN Membership Sales

Manager Tammy Wages said this week. "It keeps the money in the community, it keeps people from paying the high price of an airlift and whatever their insurance doesn't cover, they aren't balance-billed for it as long as they have this membership."

"This is a valuable thing for households to have, to protect themselves from the high cost of an unexpected emergency."

Wages said customers often purchase memberships as gifts for their parents, grandparents, children or grandchildren.

AirMedCare has more than three million members in more than 320 locations across the United States, Wages said, including Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties.

"There are other discounts available," Wages said. "If you're age 60 and above, it's only $65 per year. People call me all the time and I see if they're eligible for other discounts."

"Membership covers everyone under your roof, even if you have kids at college, they're still your household. ... There's no limit each year. There's no limit per incident -- you're still covered no matter what. It does not matter if you have health insurance or not, if you have no insurance, if you have this membership, there is no copay, no deductible, nothing -- it's a zero balance."

State grant will help build hangar at Stennis International Airport

SEA COAST ECHO
The Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission has received a $325,000 grant to build an additional aircraft hangar at Stennis International Airport in Kiln, Mississippi. The corporate hangar's cost was projected in HCPHC's 2018 annual budget at $665,000. The grant, awarded by the Mississippi Transportation Commission's Multimodal Program, will cover approximately 50 percent of that cost. The 100-by-100-foot hangar will include office space and aircraft storage, as well. It is expected to attract corporate and unmanned-aircraft system (UAS) companies, from research to flight operations. "This award will greatly assist us in moving forward with the Commission's planned enhancements to Stennis International Airport," said Stennis Airport Director Kevin

Carlisle, "to improve its desirability as a hub for moving goods and services into and out of south Mississippi." The Port and Harbor Commission's CEO, Bill Cork, said: "Thanks to the state's Transportation Commission's Multimodal Program grant, Stennis Airport's corporate hangar, which is but one of 13 capital projects planned, in progress, or completed in Fiscal Year 2018, is a large step closer to becoming reality."

Mississippi reports eight new West Nile Virus cases

The Mississippi State Department of Health (MSDH) this week reported eight new human cases of West Nile virus (WNV), bringing the state's total to 21 so far for 2018. The reported cases are in Adams (2), Calhoun, Hinds (2), Forrest, Jones, Madison, and Washington counties. So far this year human cases have been reported in Adams (2), Calhoun, Copiah, Forrest (2), Hinds (8), Itawamba, Jones, Madison, Marion, Oktibbeha, Pearl River, and Washington counties. In 2017, Mississippi had 63 WNV cases and two deaths. State Epidemiologist Dr. Paul Byers said now that Mississippi is in its peak WNV season of July through September, it's important to always take precautions against mosquitoes, even if a case has not been reported in your county of residence. Byers added that while most people with WNV infection recover without any long-term problems, some develop a more severe infection that can lead to complications and even death — especially those over 50 years of age. Symptoms of WNV infection are often mild and may include fever, headache, nausea, vomiting, a rash, muscle weakness or swollen lymph nodes. In a small number of cases, infection can result in encephalitis or meningitis, which can lead to paralysis, coma and possibly death. The MSDH suggests the following precautions to protect yourself and your family from mosquito-borne illnesses:

- Use a mosquito repellent with an EPA-registered ingredient such as DEET while you are outdoors.
- Remove all sources of standing water around your home and yard to prevent mosquito breeding.
- Wear loose, light-colored, long clothing to cover the arms and legs when outdoors.
- Avoid areas where mosquitoes are prevalent.

For more information on mosquito-borne illnesses, visit the MSDH website at HealthyMS.com/westnile.

Waveland golf cart update

Waveland Police Chief David Allen this week issued an update on golf cart registration in the city. "We've had to turn a lot of people away from golf cart registration because they didn't have the proper equipment," Allen said in a press release. Here's what officers inspect when you come to the police station:

- Insurance (card must be in golf cart)
- Headlights
- Front and Rear Turn Signals which work
- Tail Lights
- Brake Lights
- Reflector's (One on each side and one in rear)
- Exterior Mirror on Drivers Side
- Passenger Side or Rear View Mirror
- Parking Brake
- Windshield conforming to Federal Standards
- Has VIN or Serial #
- Seat Belts on all seats
- Reflective Triangle 16.1" x 14.2"

"The main item we see people lacking is the external driver's side mirror," Allen said. "Please get one before you come. A large rear view mirror is not enough. We are also NOT going to give registrations to people who live in the city of Bay St. Louis. You'll need to go register at your police department. We plan to honor the Bay St. Louis registrations in our city. We will, however, register everyone else. If you live in the county, or even another state, and want to bring your cart to Waveland, come register with us so we can give you a copy of the rules and the map."

The days of 'hothouse' tomatoes

I believe I had a lot more time and energy in my younger days. Back in the 1960s, I even tried to grow tomatoes during the winter. Each fall, I would take the long branches from my tomato plants from earlier in the year and root them by covering them with dirt.

On the side of my house, I built frame of 2x4s to the top of the bricks on my house from ground level. I covered it with a heavy sheet of clear plastic that could be opened or closed to keep the plants from freezing.

It actually worked for several years and I was able to grow fresh, ripe tomatoes in my make-shift greenhouse until my spring crop took over.

During the winters, on my late crops, I would pollinate the flowers by hand. I grew several varieties of tomatoes in the spring.

Those I would pick in January, February and March were about three-quarters of the size of the ones I got the cuttings from.

Now in those days, it was very hard to find fresh tomatoes in the stores in winter months – we didn't import things from other countries in those days like we do now. If you wanted fresh tomatoes, you had to do it yourself.

My home-made garden protection worked until we had a really hard freeze that killed all of my citrus and fig trees. That was when my "hot-house" came down.

Before that, though, I had all the tomatoes we could eat and still dropped off 20 or so pounds of them at Mr. Luciano's food store on Main Street every winter. Every time I brought him some, they sold out by that evening.

I used the change he paid me to purchase fertilizers and other gardening items.

I learned early how to be a good gardener. When I was growing up, my family and I had to be able to produce our own food, or we didn't get to eat very much.

Gardening -- in addition to providing tasty food for your table -- is also a very good form of exercise.

We didn't use roto-tillers in those days. I just used a rake, a hoe, a spade and a little muscle.

We also enjoyed growing flowers, and at one time, we had 30 patented rose bushes growing across the front of our property.

For years, I would bring some to the Echo and place them on the front counter.

Unfortunately, like many other things,

Success Story of 'JROTC Act'

Sometimes a conversation at church can spark an idea for a law. That happened in early May, when my longtime friend Leland Speed told me about the success of the Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps, commonly known as JROTC, in the Jackson Public School system.

As Leland explained, more than 90 percent of this year's graduating seniors who participated in a JROTC program within the Jackson Public School system have been accepted into an institution of higher learning. More than $7.5 million in scholarships have been awarded to these JROTC graduates.

JROTC's Record of Positive Outcomes

I would come to find out that the success of the seven Jackson Public Schools with JROTC units is not an outlier. According to a RAND Corporation study, participating in JROTC is likely to improve a student's grade point average and test scores. Cadets are more likely not to drop out of school but to graduate and

From the Senate

by Roger Wicker

go to college. In the process, JROTC instills valuable leadership skills and community service, teaching high school students about personal responsibility and civic engagement.

These findings match my own experience as an ROTC Cadet in college, and the record of success of many JROTC graduates. In fact, two current members of the President's cabinet, Commerce Secretary Wilbur Ross and Housing and Urban Development Secretary Ben Carson, both participated in JROTC.

But too often these programs are out of reach where they are most needed.

Hundreds of high schools across the country are on a waitlist to host a JROTC unit.

Beginning of 'JROTC Act'

The more I learned about the success of JROTC programs, I better understood that more students would benefit from these programs in their schools. Earlier this year, I introduced the "JROTC Opportunities for Transformational Change Act," or "JROTC Act," in the U.S. Senate. The bill set out to authorize funding for 100 additional JROTC units and to make reforms that would help schools in rural and underserved areas participate.

As a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, I also offered my "JROTC Act" as an amendment to the annual defense authorization bill. It was adopted into the full bill by the committee and soon passed by the entire Senate. Last month, the "JROTC Act" was included in the defense bill's final conference report passed by both the House and the Senate. President Trump signed the bill into law this week.

Senate Committee Grants Additional Funding

Every year, there are two pieces to the puzzle when it comes to defense spending. An annual defense authorization bill approves funding levels for our military, and then the defense appropriations bill actually puts the money toward the priorities that the authorization bill has identified.

I am pleased to report that the defense funding bill approved by the Senate Appropriations Committee supports my "JROTC Act" by increasing our investment in JROTC. This bill should come to the Senate floor for a vote soon.

Our state can support more JROTC units, and I hope this legislation enables that for the communities in Mississippi that could benefit the most from these programs. Not every bill idea emerges from a conversation at church, but the "JROTC Act" is an encouraging example of how policy solutions can be driven by local success stories.

Despite concern, leave fawns alone

Many Mississippians are concerned about wildlife and will do what they can to protect and conserve them.

Wildlife Mississippi has received calls from concerned citizens who want someone to come get a deer fawn, baby duck, baby bird, or baby rabbit they've found, only to become upset when they're told the young animal is probably okay and should be left alone.

Most people wouldn't go over to a table in a restaurant and pick up a child, take it home, and then call the sheriff. The child's mother or father is probably in the buffet line or not too far away. But many people will pick up a deer fawn. The fawn's mother is usually feeding close by.

This problem is not new to Mississippi or the Southeast. Every time late spring and early summer roll around, we get a new

Conservation Corner

by James L.

Cummins

Wildlife Mississippi

crop of fawns and other wildlife. The urge by many well-intentioned people is to pick these animals up and take them home to raise and care for them. Thinking the fawn has been abandoned by its mother, some individuals take the fawn home with them to bottle feed and raise. They often end up calling the conservation officer or biologist for guidance about caring for the animal.

In addition to it being illegal to handle most native wildlife except during legal hunting seasons, newborn wild animals are almost never abandoned and should be left where they are found. It is perfectly normal for the doe deer to leave her young fawn while she is off feeding nearby.

The doe returns occasionally to check on the fawn and allows it to nurse. Because of the fawn's natural instinct to lie still at this early age, people are able to walk right up to fawns. I have walked up on fawns in the woods and fields on our farms in Monroe, Montgomery, and Webster counties.

Handling fawns is a problem. Anywhere you have deer, you'll have this problem. All wildlife should be left in their natural environment. Attempting to treat wildlife as pets inevitably results in unfavorable consequences for the animal in question. Wildlife that loses its fear of humans oftentimes poses a threat to people, as we have seen with alligators on the Ross Barnett Reservoir and even in the City of Jackson.

It is illegal to keep wild animals in confinement except under special permitting procedures. It is best for all concerned to leave them in the wild. This is better for the animal in question and will help keep our wildlife "wild."

James L. Cummins is executive director of Wildlife Mississippi, a non-profit, conservation organization founded to conserve, restore, and enhance fish, wildlife, and plant resources throughout Mississippi. Their web site is www.wildlifemiss.org.

Hurricane Katrina cleaned them out.

My last rose bush died a few years after Katrina.

We never used any chemicals on the roses –

we didn't want to contaminate the vegetable garden.

Rose bushes are beautiful, but they really take a lot of time to properly maintain. After the rose bushes died, we tried day lilies. We had many varieties, and they looked good, too.

I guess that I'll have to content myself the memo-

Hancock wins 10-7 over PRC in defensive struggle

BY DWAYNE BREMER
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

The Hancock Hawks collected their first victory of the 2018 season Friday evening, beating a scrappy Pearl River Central squad 10-7.

"We battled all evening and I'm proud of the way we came out in the second half," Hawks Head Coach Neil Lollar said. "Pearl River Central has a good team, they are going in the right direction."

Friday's game was dominated by defense on both sides. Neither team accumulated more than 200 yards in total offense.

The Hawks looked to take control early when they marched into the red-zone behind three first-down runs by Blake Comeaux. A penalty, followed by three incomplete passes, gave the Blue Devils the ball back on downs.

After trading possessions, PRC embarked on a 65-yard drive for its lone score of the game.

Kobe Whitfield and Detrich Spiers both had 21-yard runs on the drive.

Whitfield capped the drive with a one-yard run. The point-after gave PRC a 7-0 lead with 10:28 to play in the first half.

Hancock only ran six plays in the second quarter, but the Hawk defense held firm, not allowing the Blue Devils to extend their lead.

The Hancock Hawks scored a win for their first game of the 2018 football season, defeating Pearl River Central 10-7.

Sacks by Tyler Kapp and Jace Ladner thwarted a PRC drive late in the half.

Hancock received the second half kickoff and finally got moving downfield.

Caleb Garcia connected with Brooks Rayburn for 20 yards and a first down, and two first-down runs by Comeaux gave the Hawks a first down at the 11.

On third down, PRC's Kolbe Delatte and Ethan Everett sacked Garcia for an eight-yard loss.

Hancock's Austin Hyde then booted a 34-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3 at the 6:16 mark of the third quarter.

After forcing a punt, the Hawks moved into the red-zone again when Anthony Flowers broke free on a 28-yard run.

Once again, the Blue Devil defense rose up and stopped Hancock when Comeaux was stopped short on a fourth-and-one at the 16.

The Hawks forced another three-and-out and took over at their 40 after a punt.

Comeaux rushed for seven yards, and Garcia connected with Rayburn on a 34 yard pass and a first down at the 24.

Four plays later, Comeaux scored from six yards out to give the Hawks their first lead of the game. Hyde added the point-after and the Hawks led 10-7 with 8:21 to play.

After trading possessions, PRC took over at the 48 with just under three minutes to play.

A 21-yard run by Whitfield moved the ball to the Hawk 30, but that would be as close as PRC would get, as they would turn the ball over on downs four plays later.

PRC Head Coach Jacob Owen said he was proud of his team's effort.

"Our defense played well enough to win tonight," he said. "I give Hancock's defense a lot of credit. We were implementing a new system and that is a tough defense to have to do that against."

Whitfield led the Blue Devil attack with 105 yards on 20 carries.

Comeaux paced the Hawks with 97 yards on 18 carries. Flowers added 40 yards on four carries and Rayburn caught two passes from 54 yards.

The Hawks will host South Jones next Friday at Brett Favre Field.

Hurricanes storm Tigers

BY HUNTER DAWKINS AND STACEY CATO

Despite having the ball inside the West Harrison 30-yard line in the last minute, Bay St. Louis High School could not find a way to punch it in, and the final score ended up Hurricanes 22, Tigers 21.

There was no score in the second half, largely due to penalties and stoppage of the clock. The last score of the game came from late in the first half when the Tigers delivered a bad snap for a punt and gave up a safety with 2:16 left to play in the second quarter.

After the safety was enforced, the Tigers lost the lead for the last time of the game.

"Our guys played hard and battled through the game, playing four quarters," said Bay High Head Coach Ben Foreman. "We made some mistakes and that's on me, something that I need to correct."

Jumping out of the gate, the Tigers' senior running back Cade Compretta raced in for a touchdown from six yards out, as Bay got the possession off a deep fumble recovery with 11:45 in the first quarter. Compretta's score and Dawson Kotsakos converted extra point gave the Tigers the early lead with 10:35 left in the quarter.

On the next possession, Tiger Senior Larry James recovered another fumble from the Hurricanes, leading to a six-play drive, that resulted in senior Bay running back Dominic Anderson diving in from the one-yard line. Kotsakos' kick was good, with 8:11 left in the first quarter, making the new lead Bay 14, West Harrison 0.

After that, the Hurricanes had a few long runs, eventually leading to a sneak in to the end zone from West Harrison quarterback Keith Holloway. The extra point was blocked, leaving the score at 14-6 Bay High, with 4:16 left in the first quarter.

The Hurricanes recovered a Tiger fumble at the start of the second quarter with 10:33 left in the half, leading to West Harrison running back Llane Dickerson's 51-yard scamper for a touchdown. Once again, the extra point was blocked with 8:18 left in the half and the score being 14-12, with Bay in the lead.

Bay High senior running back Maxwell Lewis powered through a few tacklers from 35 yards for a touchdown. Kotsakos made his final extra point, putting the lead to 21-12, Bay, with 6:49 left in the half.

After that, the Tigers made a few costly mistakes, from which the Hurricanes took swift advantage. West Harrison running back Joseph Miller scored a touchdown after stretching around the end on an 11-yard run. The Hurricanes' two-point conversion was successful and cut the lead to 21-20, Bay.

The Tigers' only real close shot before the end was when kicker Kotsakos had a chance at a 38-yard field goal, but it fell short. West Harrison controlled the ball for the last seven minutes with an 11-play drive.

"I got the job so late in May, I just told the guys that we're going to have to outwork everybody," said West Harrison Head Coach Quincy Patrick. "The offensive line is the leader of our offense and when we needed to convert, we did."

Bay High host Lumberton next Friday.

Pirates capture Oyster Bowl in thrilling 34-31 victory over L.B.

BY DWAYNE BREMER
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

The Pass Christian Pirates came from behind five times Thursday to capture the 2018 Oyster Bowl in a thrilling 34-31 victory against the arch-rival Long Beach Bearcats at Lumpkin-Magee field.

The game featured two of the best quarterbacks on the Gulf Coast and neither disappointed.

Bearcat quarterback Cade Crosby completed 18 of 25 passes for 288 yards and four scores.

Pirate signal caller Dustin Allison completed 11 of 18 passes for 237 yards and a score. He added 106 yards rushing and two scores.

Both quarterbacks threw an interception.

"Dustin was our leader out there tonight," Pirate Head Coach Casey Whitmann said. "He has really improved from last year. I'm very proud of our kids and their effort in this game. We battled all night and never gave up."

Thursday's game was the first high school football game of the season on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. It was the second consecutive season that Pass Christian and Long Beach opened the season on a Thursday. Dubbed the "Oyster Bowl," the game was created to renew the Pass Christian/Long Beach rivalry which had become dormant after the two teams were placed in different districts a decade ago.

Although the contest ended in a shootout, defense dominated much of the first half.

Terre' Johnson recovered a Bearcat fumble on the first drive of the game, giving the Pirates good field position at the 45.

Allison connected on three consecutive passes to move the ball into the red-zone, but an interception by Orlasko Barnes thwarted the scoring chance.

Long Beach moved the ball into Pirate territory, but turned it over on downs after Kain Lally and Webb Davis sacked Crosby on a fourth- down play.

Once again, the Pirates moved the ball into the red-zone, but Reis Baughman missed a 33-yard field goal, and the game remained scoreless headed into the second quarter.

The Bearcats broke through midway through the quarter when Crosby connected with Logan Matherne on a 15-yard touchdown pass. The score was set up by a 50-yard completion to Kobe Cook.

Kai Vancourt added the point-after to give the Bearcats a 7-0 lead.

The Pirates punted on their next drive, but the defense made a big play to set up a score.

On a third-and-sixteen at midfield, Gordon Ward broke through the line to sack Crosby and cause a fumble that was scooped up by Reese Gorman who returned it to the 20.

A few plays later, Ward scored on a six-yard run. Baughman added the point-after to tie the game 7-7 with 3:32 to play in the half.

Vancourt nailed a 44-yard field goal by Vancourt with 10 seconds remaining in the half, to give the Bearcats a 10-7 lead.

The Pirates received the second half kickoff, and soon after, the fireworks began. After two short runs, the Pirates were faced with a third-and-eight.

Allison took the snap, pumped faked a short hitch, and then went over the top Dylan Necaie who was wide open and streaking down the right sideline. Necaie caught the pass in stride and galloped into the endzone for a 65-yard touchdown.

"That was a huge play for us," Allison said. "It gave us a lot of momentum for the second half."

Whitman said he was saving the play for the right time.

"We had set it up with a short pass earlier in the game," Whitman said. "The corner bit on the hitch the first time, so we felt good about the play. Dustin made a great throw."

Baughman's point-after gave the Pirates a 14-10 lead with 10:09 to play in the third quarter.

Long Beach answered with an eight-play drive that spanned 69 yards to retake the lead. Crosby connected with Matherne for a 23-yard scoring strike to cap the drive. The point-after gave the Bearcats a 17-14 lead with 6:31 to play in the third.

Crosby and Matherne hooked up again later in the third on a 33-yard scoring strike. The point-after failed, but Long Beach had extended its lead to 23-14 with 3:24 to play in the quarter.

Pass Christian immediately answered with a 68-yard drive that took only five plays.

Allison connected with Necaie again, this time on a 55-yard bomb to get a first down at the 15.

Three plays later, Allison took a keeper four yards for a touchdown. Baughman added the point-after to cut the Bearcat lead to 23-21 with 1:23 to play in the third.

After a punt, the Pirates struck quickly again to take the lead early in the fourth quarter.

Allison connected with Xavion Page for an 11-yard reception and he then found Huu Nguyen for a 50-yard completion to the Bearcat four.

Allison scored on the next play on his second rushing touchdown of the game.

Baughman nailed the point-after, giving the Pirates a 28-23 lead with 10:36 to play.

Long Beach retook the lead on their next drive when Crosby hit Jervey Foxworth on a 44-yard strike. Crosby ran in the two-point conversion to give Long Beach a 31-28 lead with 9:19 to play.

Taking over at the 25, the Pirates only needed five plays to retake the lead.

Allison started things out with a 25-yard scramble. He then connected with Page for 16 yards. Two plays later, Ward broke free for a 21-yard touchdown run.

The point-after failed, but the Pirates were back in front 34-21 with 6:32 to play.

The Pirates defense then dug in to stop the Bearcats on two consecutive drives.

On both drives, cornerback Darmonta May broke up long passes.

Long Beach forced a late punt and got the ball back at their own 42 with just 21 seconds to play.

After three incomplete passes, only four seconds remained.

On the last play, Crosby was forced out of bounds at his own 40, and the game appeared to be over.

The Pirates, however, were flagged for a late hit, and the officials awarded one untimed play at the Pirate 45.

Crosby took the snap and heaved a pass towards the endzone, but Necaie was there for an interception, sealing the victory for the Pirates.

Necaie led the Pirates in receiving with three grabs for 125 yards.

Ward collected 48 yards rushing and two scores on offense, while tallying six tackles, two sacks, and two forced fumbles on defense.

Matherne led the Bearcats with five catches for 93 yards and three scores.

Tyson Gaines led the Bearcat rushing attack with 76 yards on ten carries.

The Pirates will host Lanier next Friday.

Hancock sweeps OLA on the volleyball court

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

While the 2018 volleyball season is still young, the Hancock Lady Hawks and the Our Lady Academy Crescents squared off in a rivalry game on Thursday evening in Bay St. Louis.

The Lady Hawks (2-5) swept OLA (3-4) in straight sets 25-15, 25-18, and 25-18.

Hancock head coach Rick Rechtiem commented, "We have had a tough start to our season. We have played the Class II state champion twice, the Class III champion and now the Class I champion. However, our girls came in focused this evening. For many of them this is their first opportunity to lead so it is new for them. It is hard to replace the group we had the last six years. I am happy with the progress so far. Tonight, they did what we have worked on in practice for the first time this season."

Maleah Austin continued her dominance at the net with 20 kills to lead Hancock.

OLA head coach Mike Meyers stated, "We were beaten by a team that was much better than us tonight. Hancock played at a high pace and we played in slow motion. We also made several mental mistakes in the rotation. As a coach, this is all my fault. We will have to do a much better job to compete against teams of this caliber."

Rebecca Walk had 13 kills and two blocks followed by Camille Cottone with nine kills. Ashley Bulot added 16 assists and five points while Margaret White tallied seven points.

In earlier action this past week, Hancock fell to Southaven 25-14 and 25-17 and Vancleave 25-16, 23-25, and 6-15 in the Set It Off tournament. Game details were not available.

OLA defeated East Central on Tuesday evening 25-22, 25-8 and 25-14.

Walk led OLA with 31 kills and two blocks followed by White with 22 points and seven aces. Bulot chipped in 10 points and 19 assists. Cottone added 12 assists and Alma Hearin contributed 13 points and five aces.

FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM AT ICONIC NOKIA BELL LABS PRODUCT OF C SPIRE®, NOKIA® PARTNERSHIP

cspire
NOKIA Bell Labs

SEA COAST ECHO

Ridgeland, Miss. (August 16, 2018) – Two C Spire employees -- including a Waveland native -- will be leaving later this month for a three-month rotational assignment at Nokia Bell Labs, the world-renowned research organization in information technology and communications, as part of a joint fellowship program between the companies and two of Mississippi's leading universities.

The C Spire-Nokia Bell Labs Fellowship Program, now in its second year, offers college students majoring in computer science and electrical engineering the opportunity to conduct relevant industry research alongside some of the world's leading scientists, engineers and technologists.

Ole Miss senior Rodrick Rogers - and Mississippi State seniors Cassie Myers of Waveland and Grant Parker - were the three student winners chosen from among a plethora of finalists that participated in the inaugural 2017-2018 program.

Rogers and Myers were hired by C Spire following their graduation in May. Rogers and Myers, both RF design engineers, plan to focus on wireless access topics during their upcoming stint at Nokia Bell Labs in Murray Hill, New Jersey.

They will be the second pair of C Spire employees to get a chance to work side-by-side with some of the world's leading researchers.

Last year, Jason Ball and Richard Hill were selected for the introductory assignment from among many employee applicants.

"These team members are some of our best and brightest and represent future leaders in our industry," said C Spire President Stephen Bye. "This experience allows them to hone their professional skills by working on real projects that will make a difference and have an impact on the way in which we serve and support our customers."

The Mississippi-based diversified telecommunications and technology services company has long supported academic excellence in colleges and universities, but in recent years has focused more on working with educators, schools and community-based training programs to help students and learners transition into the workforce and turn their education and training into a professional career.

C Spire reinforced its commitment to innovation last fall by launching the C Spire Tech Movement initiative designed to leverage the company's technology leadership and investments to help transform its service areas. A key element is the massive expansion of ultra-fast broadband and fixed wireless internet access with the goal of reaching thousands more consumers and businesses.

Other elements of the initiative include leading the creation of a high-tech workforce through education initiatives and related efforts, expanding tech innovation and education in the areas of robotics, artificial intelligence, machine learning and the Internet of Things and development of a state-of-the-art digital customer care platform.

Bye and Nokia Bell Labs President Marcus Weldon share a passion for technology innovation and agreed last year to develop a fellowship program that is tailored to the specific needs of the future workforce in the southeastern U.S. "Nokia Bell Labs is creating new technologies that connect the world. Our partnership with C Spire is another way we're innovating to attract brilliant minds with great ideas to help us change the world," Weldon said.

C Spire will begin accepting applications for the next round of college fellowships in September from computer science and computer or electrical engineering majors at Ole Miss and Mississippi State. Fellowship recipients receive a $5,000 academic stipend, mentoring from C Spire and Bell Labs professionals, internships and full-time employment opportunities.

"It's a great way to get exposed to the future of technology, work with some of the most innovative technologists in the world and use these advanced technologies to better serve our customer's needs," Bye said, adding that the prestigious fellowship program is seeking rising junior or senior-year students with at least a 3.0 grade point average and a demonstrated interest in the fields of communications and information technology.

Grief Support Group

SEA COAST ECHO

St. Thomas Episcopal Church is pleased to offer a six-week Grief Support Group to our Diamondhead and greater Hancock County Community. The six-week program will begin on Tuesday, September 4, 2018. If you or someone you care about has been dealing with emotional pain due to the loss of a spouse or other dearly-loved person, you are invited to participate. This will be a structured program which will include educational presentations to help us understand our overwhelming feelings of loss and how to better deal with them. It will also provide a safe, caring support group and an opportunity to share our own personal memories and issues. The goal of these groups is to provide our community with a support vehicle to deal with the difficulties and emotional turbulence that follows the death of a loved one. Grief is a normal human process that all people experience in the course of life. The healthiest healing involves a process of working through the pain. We grieve most effectively when we find ourselves with others who understand and are willing to hear our pain. The groups will provide a safe, confidential place to share individual memories, thoughts, and experiences and to begin the process of moving into the next phase of your life. The Grief Support Group will last for six weeks and will be held at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, 5303 Diamondhead Circle, across from the Diamondhead Community Center. The meetings will start at 6:30 p.m. If you have any questions, please call 228.234.2651, 228.255.9213, or 228.363.2211 for further information.

U.S Navy Evaluates Newest Unmanned System Technologies Along Mississippi Coast

The Advanced Naval Technology Exercise (ANTX) Gulf Coast to test new systems for surveys and operational missions

SEA COAST ECHO

Stennis Space Center— For the first time since the inception of the Navy’s annual Advanced Naval Technology Exercise (ANTX), a portion of the event will take place in Gulf of Mexico waters along the Mississippi Gulf Coast. These exercises demonstrate the future of Navy technologies in action today and Naval Oceanography will have a critical role in these demonstrations. ANTX demonstrates the future of Navy technologies in action today.

ANTX also provides a feedback loop for the Navy requirements community and industry, academia and Warfare Center research and development investments – informing both the requirements community and internal investment decisions.

ANTX was created by the Naval Underwater Warfare Center (NUWC) located in Newport, RI to evaluate emerging technologies. They provide a low-risk environment in which scientists and engineers evaluate their technological innovations at the research and development level before their technologies are integrated into operations. This year companies submitted their proposals for demonstrations in either Rhode Island or off the Mississippi Gulf Coast that are focused on oceanographic applications. Naval Oceanography personnel at Stennis Space Center, MS reviewed numerous proposals to identify unique or exciting technologies that support their specific naval missions. Working with the technology providers, they then constructed realistic scenarios, called vignettes, to test the technologies in a low-risk but operational oceanographic environment. Throughout the exercise, Naval Oceanography personnel will gain knowledge of the new systems being tested, compare the equipment’s performance alongside traditional, operational systems, and provide crucial feedback to the company to improve equipment performance to meet operational requirements.

As a result of the types of technologies submitted during the proposal process, two vignettes were developed to demonstrate new system’s operations in the Gulf: one supporting collection of global oceanic and hydrographic data, and the other supporting mine warfare. A third vignette, that does not involve an industry partner, will be conducted utilizing existing technology and supporting wide-area searches for early detection of submarines.

“We look for systems that are fairly mature in their development and have the potential for integration into Navy surveys or Navy missions with minimal impact, but yet enhance that mission,” stated Rear Admiral John Okon, Commander, Naval Meteorology and Oceanography Command. “We set goals for each vignette and look for evidence the technology may reduce the time of a mission, allow for more autonomous operations, increase our battlespace awareness, or otherwise improve the mission.”

The results of ANTX Gulf Coast will be presented at the 8th annual Oceans In Action Workshop, hosted by the Marine Technology Society’s Gulf Coast Section and the Mississippi Enterprise for Technology at the Courtyard Marriott in Gulfport on August 21st and 22nd. The workshop will include a half-day session at the University of Southern Mississippi’s new Marine Research Center where posters, videos, and equipment involved in the local vignettes will be displayed. A draft agenda for the event, which includes pier-side demonstrations at the Port of Gulfport, is available at www.mtsociety.org under Society News.

The first day of this event features presentations from local federal agencies with a marine-related mission. Because of the close collaboration with ANTX, speakers from NUWC, as well as the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, will also participate in the workshop.

“We are very pleased to have support from the Systems Command at NUWC and the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy,” said Okon. “Their participation brings national attention to our mission at Stennis and to our strategic plan to foster innovation to the greatest extent possible.”

This is a second in a series of articles on Oceans In Action and ANTX. Next: Local businesses involved in Oceans In Action and ANTX.

Lester has been waiting patiently for his second chance family to come his way, but it seems that after 6 months, it is not to be. We are losing hope! This sweetheart is house trained, crate trained, leash trained, and loves people and other dogs. He is a lap pooch and cuddler, and gives the best ever doggie kisses. He would enjoy a home with a fenced backyard, and he could easily join a home with existing pets. Can't adopt right now? How about fostering for approximately 60 days? All vet care and supplies are provided at no expense to the foster. A wonderful 501(c)3 rescue will transport Lester to the Northeast once he has undergone the "fast kill" heartworm treatment. Please consider fostering or adopting Lester. He is currently being boarded at our vet, but can be adopted through the Hancock County Animal Shelter. I WANT TO LIVE UNTIL I DIE

It wasn't long ago when a very wise lady told me she only prayed for two things for her life. She also told me she prayed for a lot of people and situations but she was only interested in a couple of things for herself. She stated, "I pray every day that the Lord will let me live until I die." Many different reactions come when she tells people of this request. Many will furrow their brow and some will smile with misunderstanding written all over their face. However many people, especially in the older generation, understand exactly what she is saying. I remember my paternal grandmother lying in a nursing home bed for five years before the Lord called her home. She did not know any of her family, had to be helped up and down to the bathroom, and on many occasions was fed through a tube. One often has to wonder the reasoning of the Lord when He allows a person such as this to live out her remaining years not knowing anyone around her or able to do anything for herself. I can only envision the Lord using this experience to help others gain patience and wisdom on caring for His people. My grandmother was a Christian lady and I remember staying with her when I was young and being carried, not sent, to church by her. Many people today do not understand why someone would suffer and be a burden on someone until they die. These people may not know Jesus personally and doesn't understand His grace and mercy. These people also don't understand that when you accept Jesus as your Savior that your life on earth may end but your eternal life will be with Him in His heavenly home. Agnostics and atheists of today will tell you that the life you are living now is the only one you will ever have and that when you are buried you are through. Maybe this is why they are so burdened about the luxuries of the world and doesn't worry about anyone else but themselves. My wise friend prays for these people often and hopes that they will soon find their way to the cross and understand why Jesus died for them also. She prays that they will find their way to the resurrection morning and understand that

BY GARY ANDREWS

GARY@GADEVOTIONALS.COM

Jesus lives today and wants them to understand that His grace and mercy is free for the asking. One only has to go to Romans 3:23-24 in the Holy Bible, God's inerrant Word, to understand Jesus wants you to be one of His own. My friend is a wonderful lady and a great, true friend. She loves people and she loves Jesus. She is about doing His work in everything she does. Her request of living until she dies is the same as mind. Both of us want to do God's work until He calls us home. We don't want to be a burden on anyone when we aren't able to do His work anymore and just want to be at home with Him. Her second prayer is that she outlives her teeth. This also is a good prayer.

THE AWARD-WINNING PRINT & ONLINE FAMILY FEATURE

What has a head like a deer but can hop like a rabbit?
It can stand upright, swim and even box.

Kangaroos

Where can kangaroos be found?
Solve each math problem to label the map.

32 - 11 = AUSTRALIA
16 + 16 = NEW ZEALAND
29 - 6 = NEW GUINEA

Draw a line from each question to the answer that makes the most sense.

How many different kinds of kangaroos are there?

Which is the largest kangaroo?

Which is the smallest kangaroo?

The musky rat-kangaroo is less than a pound (.5 kg).

The red kangaroo is around 175 lbs (80kg).

More than 60 species.

Kangaroos are marsupials, which means they are mammals that have an external pouch or pocket.

Marsupials are different from most mammals because they give birth to very underdeveloped young.

Joeys are born hairless and tiny, about the size of a bean and must climb their way up into their mother's pouch. They remain here to feed and sleep and grow—in six months they grow to be 2,000 times the size they were at birth.

Standards Link: Life Science: Know that animals progress through life cycles of birth, growth, development, reproduction and death.

Roo Features

A kangaroo, or roo, has _____ back legs, small front legs and a head shaped like that of a deer. Its well-developed _____ include excellent scanning eyesight and sharp _____ provided by large rabbit-like ears that can turn forward or back. In a larger roo, the tail acts as a _____ for sitting, but also helps the animal _____ when hopping. Powerful back legs propel larger roos to speeds of up to 40 mph.

Replace the words that this kangaroo knocked out.

Use the Kangaroo Code to find these answers.

What is the name for a group of kangaroos?

What do you call a kangaroo that weighs less than 45 lbs (25kg)?

What do you call a baby kangaroo?

	= A		= M
	= B		= O
	= E		= S
	= J		= W
	= L		= Y

Standards Link: Life Science: Students understand the diversity of life.

Extra! Extra! Jumping News

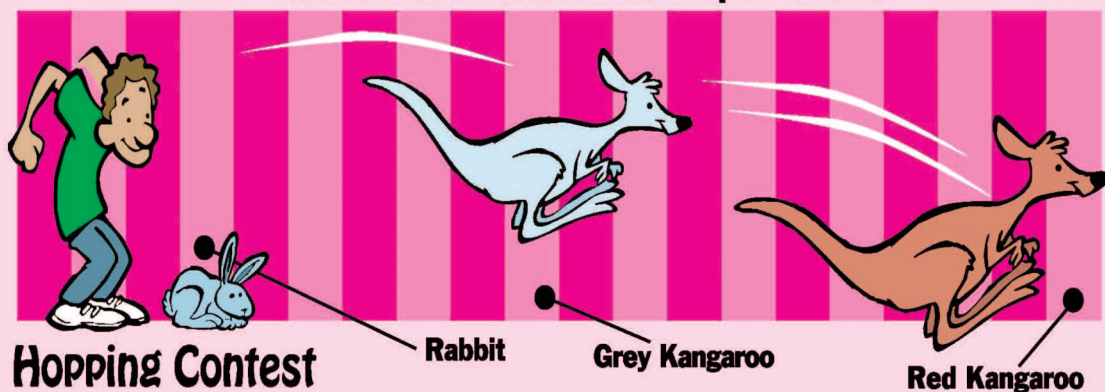

In a newspaper, a "jump" is a story that jumps from one page, usually the front page, to another. How many jumps can you find in today's newspaper?

Standards Link: Research: Understand that newspapers have a specific type of layout.

World-famous Jumpers

Their strong back legs launch kangaroos into the air. And their tails help them balance, as they hop great distances. When they hop, kangaroos use only their hind legs, which move together, much like those of a rabbit.

MEASURING BAR (Each stripe = 1 foot)

Hopping Contest

Stand in one spot with your feet together. Now make a giant hop. How far did you hop? Mark that distance on the above grid. Look how far a gray roo, a red roo and a rabbit can hop. How do you compare?

Standards Link: Measurement: Understand the basic measures of length.

Name That Idiom

A Kangaroo Court means an unauthorized gathering of people who take the law into their own hands. The term came into being when people who called themselves "judges" would "leap" from place to place to hold court.

Kangaroo Court is an idiom—a phrase that has a different meaning than the one the words imply.
